SEVERAL THOUSAND SUFFRAGETTES HOLD WASHINGTON PARADE CHEERED LOUDLY AS THEY MARCH ON THE AVENUE

WOMEN SING, BANDS PLAY AND BANNERS FLY AS PART OF DEMONSTRATION. MEMBERS OF CONGRESS PETITIONED FOR BILL

Washington, D. C., May 8.—With banners flying, 10 bands playing, and the women singing a marching song, several thousand suffragettes from various sections of the country today paraded along Pennsylvania avenue from Lafayette square to the Capitol. There, 121 of them, representing every state in the union, and assigned one to each senator and representative, presented to the members of congress petitions composed by Dr. Ethel Smith of England. They demanded the passage of a Federal constitutional amendment enfranchising women.

Immense crowds viewed the procession along the route. When the capital was reached the bands were massed on the plaza before the east front where they played the "March of the Women" composed by Dr. Ethel Smith of England. There was a chorus of 1,000 women.

The parade followed a mass meeting in a downtown theater, presided over by Mrs. William Keck, wife of representative Keck of California, and at which stirring addresses were made by Miss Caroline Leason, field secretary of the women's political union of New York; Mrs. Donald Hooker, of Baltimore; and Miss Lucy Burns, of Chicago, vice-chairman of the congressional union for women suffrage, under the auspices of which the demonstration was held.

There were many novel features in the parade, and the marching women were cheered loudly by the throngs that lined Pennsylvania avenue all the way from Lafayette square, opposite the White House, to the Capitol. The first and foremost was borne aloft a banner 20 feet high, bearing the inscription: "We demand the passage of the Bristow-McDonald resolution."

TORONTO UNIONISTS PARADE IN PROTEST AGAINST HOME RULE

Toronto, May 8.—With twelve bands blaring out "Boysie Water" and "Protestant Boys," 1,500 Toronto Unionists marched through the city to protest against the "Imposition of Home Rule" upon the Irish people. The march was led by the Rev. Canon Asquith, who there are men everywhere who want to see a compromise which will leave Ulster under the Imperial conference.

The resolution carried by the big assembly concluded with: "Until this question is dealt with in such fair, proper and constitutional manner as to give the people of the empire, we assure our loyal fellow-subjects in Ireland of our united and determined support, both moral and financial, in their struggle to maintain their rights of full citizenship under the flag of the great and glorious British Empire of which we, as Canadians, are justly proud to form a part."

MOUNTED POLICE MAKE RECAPTURE OF DAN MARSH

Supposed Crazy Homesteader Taken Into Custody at Noon Today.

Quietly Eating Meal in City Restaurant. Forlorn and Hungry, Had Apparently Been Without Food for Days.

Dan Marsh, the supposed crazy homesteader, who escaped from the Mounted Police at Wabunan and has been at large for about three weeks past, was arrested about 2 o'clock today by Constables Francis and Webster of the R. N. W. M. P.

Marsh, who looked forlorn and hungry, was ravenously devouring a meal in a restaurant on Kinsington avenue. The police happened to drop into the restaurant on Kinsington avenue and recognized Marsh as the wanted man from the descriptions circulated.

A great many articles which had been found in Marsh's shack to find Marsh in the city as two men have been on the watch for him at Wabunan and it was thought that it would be impossible for him to get away from the district without being recognized and captured.

Marsh was very much surprised when the police walked into the restaurant and interrupted his meal. The police state that Marsh is certain not normal, though whether he is sufficiently insane to warrant his being sent to the asylum will not be known till he has been medically examined.

CELEBRATED MEN IN JOURNALISTIC WORLD VISIT CITY

PUBLISHER OF CANADA MONTHLY IS OPTIMISTIC

Says More Real Farmers Than Ever Before Are Coming Here.

EDWIN BALMER IN SEARCH FOR MATERIAL

Through Interior of British Columbia to Get Local Color For Fiction.

Herbert Vanderhoof, publisher of Canada Monthly and public representative to the United States for the three Canadian railways, Edwin Balmer, a noted writer in the Saturday Evening Post and several of the large American magazines, both of Chicago, are in Edmonton today with Mrs. Vanderhoof and Mrs. Balmer, on their way to Prince Rupert and the intervening country.

Although Mr. Vanderhoof is well acquainted with the three prairie provinces, having been a railway publicity man for them for years, this is his first trip to central British Columbia. It is also Mr. Balmer's first visit, and his purpose is to get color for some fiction and also several articles which will run this summer and next fall in several publications.

Mr. Vanderhoof stated today that there are larger numbers of farmers who will settle on 160 acres coming to western Canada as a whole and central B. C. in particular than ever before.

"There are not so many coming to buy up large tracts and go into wheat farming on 'dust acres,'" he said, "but more than ever coming in to become real, permanent settlers. The policy of the railways is to induce this class of settlers to come and they are succeeding to a remarkable degree."

The town of Vanderhoof, on the main line of the G. T. P., west of Prince George in the Nechako valley, is named after Mr. Vanderhoof and he will see it for the first time on this trip.

The party leaves for the west tonight on the G. T. P. They will see the famous mountains of the Yellowhead tomorrow morning and reach McLeod tomorrow afternoon. The next morning they will leave there and arrive at Prince George that night. West of the city will be a case of construction trains, boats or walking, as there will be no regular trains on the G. T. P. in June.

Mr. Balmer has traveled extensively through all parts of North America and seems very much interested in the present Mexican situation. He regards the revolution as the party of the people in that country as against the federalists under Huerta and states he thinks the revolution is very much fighting for real ideals. He would not give it as his opinion that the United States will eventually occupy Mexico as they did Cuba.

COYLE TELLS FARMERS TO GO IN FOR GARDEN TRUCK AND VEGETABLES

G. N. Coyle, of Drumheller, Alberta, formerly of Montreal and owner of the Newcastle coal mines of Drumheller at the King Edward hotel told the farmers of the city that he had moved to the medical department of Montreal and came west a few years ago, because he thought the better way was to present better opportunities for the young man than the east.

Mr. Coyle grows his own vegetables. Last year he had ten acres of potatoes and had to buy potatoes at $1.25 a bushel after having all his own crop. He advises the Alberta farmer to go in more for garden truck and vegetables, which he believes is a very profitable branch of agriculture in this country.

Secretary of State Bryan Announces They Will Be Returned to Germany.

UNKNOWN AMERICAN IS EXECUTED IN MEXICO

Private Belonging to United States Regiment Insane in Federal Lines.

Washington, D. C., May 8.—Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt reported today to the state department that he had satisfactorily settled issues which had arisen over the reported consignment of arms to General Huerta aboard the German vessel Kronprinzessin Cecilie and that the arms had been returned to Germany.

Munitions of war on board the steamer Kronprinzessin Cecilie now at Puerto Mexico, had been returned to Germany, Secretary Bryan announced today.

General receipt of information from American Consul Rogers at Havana, that munitions consigned to General Huerta on German vessels had been returned to Germany as a result of action recommended by agents of the vessels, Secretary of State Bryan announced today.

General Punston today from Vera Cruz confirmed unofficial reports that Private Farnsworth, an American soldier, has been captured by Mexican Federalists into whose lines he rode with two horses belonging to General Punston. Elmore F. Taggart, whom he served as orderly.

General Punston did not report that Parks had been executed but mentioned the execution of an unidentified American civilian.

The Parks incident was summarized in this statement by Secretary Garrison: "General Punston reported that an American private, Samuel Parks, belonging to the Twenty-eighth Infantry, apparently went insane. He took two horses, rode into Mexico City, today by the Twenty-eighth Infantry, and rode into the Mexican lines. It has been reported in General Punston that the horses were in the possession of Mexican troops.

The information was conveyed to Secretary Bryan by Ambassador Jusserand, of France. Mr. Jusserand said General Huerta's minister of war informed the French charge in Mexico City that the American consular at Saltillo was guarded by Federal forces and that neither Mr. Stillman, former member of the consulate nor other Americans were under arrest.

KAISER TO STOP BRUTALITY OF PRUSSIAN ARMY

Old Order is Revived in Bavarian War Minister's Address to Officers.

IS NATIONAL DISGRACE
Czar Attempting to Stamp Out Curse of Drunkenness Among His Soldiers.

Berlin, May 8.—Will Prussia follow the lead of Bavaria in insisting on humane treatment of soldiers by their superiors? This I find the leading topic of the day in military circles and has a very important bearing on the relations between France and Germany. The famous French Foreign Legion recruited largely from German soldiers who have been driven to desert by gross inhumanity. This fact, ranked in the breast of every German patriot. Emperor William feels deeply on the subject and on far back, January, 1890, issued the order: "My soldiers shall be treated in accordance with law, justice and humanity; for such is the necessary foundation of contentment and love for the service, as well as of attachment to superiors."

This order was soon a dead letter. Weekly reports of cases of gross cruelty to recruits show deplorable conduct. At present there is a small section of the political world that cares to show up such cases of gross brutality as they occur from time to time, and I observe that the press, which is in closest touch with the powers that be, practically suppresses them. On the other hand they are not backward in encouraging most unpunished attacks on the Foreign Legion, such as already within the last 18 months have necessitated disciplinary representations.

Appeals to Officers.

The Bavarian Minister of War's order, which may be the beginning of the wiping out of a standing German discipline, is lengthy and fine-tuned. Beginning by remarking that in spite of several ministerial orders brutal treatment has not diminished to any remarkable degree, so that a sterner form of address is necessary, the minister, Baron von Kress, appeals to all officers to help in rooting out an abuse which greatly damages the name and fame of the army. Not only actual brutality, but also and language are to be forbidden with the utmost rigor.

Noncommissioned officers of the Bavarian army who abuse their authority will stand in danger of immediately losing their rank and their claim to a pension. In the case of officers there also will remain the real risk of being cashiered.

Officers are to remove from their minds any old prejudice that brutal ways are necessary for discipline. Men treatment, Baron von Kress, is the greatest danger to real discipline, and all recruits should feel assured of just and humane treatment.

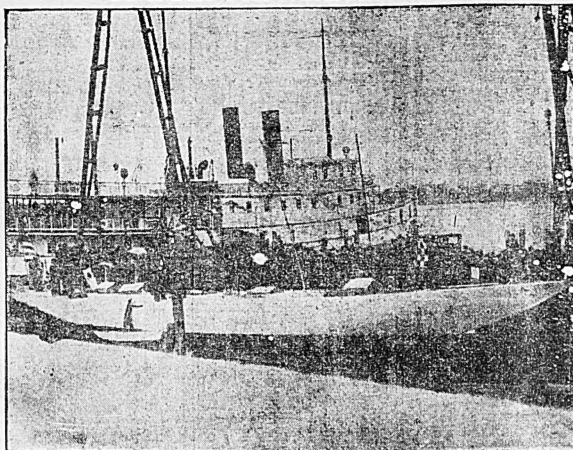

Bar on Drunkenness.

So firm is the Czar in his resolve that the curse of drunkenness shall be rooted out of the Russian empire that he has abolished the time-honored custom of army commanders to "raise a cup" to the health of the ruler and the imperial family in front of the troops at the conclusion of parades and maneuvers. Undoubtedly the alarm was given in which vodka is injuring the efficiency of the army has had much to do with this restriction upon a state monopoly which brings a revenue of $450,000,000 annually.

The physique of the Russian youth from which the army is recruited is none too good. In a large number of localities—especially in Siberia—the percentage of rejections reaching as much as 76, and the general recruiting standard is lower than in Austria, France and Germany. An General Rodger, the former minister of war, once stated the adoption by Russia of the Austrian standard would result in a loss of over 12 per cent of the army. What this means in the case of an army has been recently shown by experiments in Sweden.

It has been proved by them that the absorption of but half a liter (less than one pint) of beer half an hour be-

BIG WESTERN PAPER MAN STATES VIEWS ON THIS DISTRICT

John Martin, president of the John Martin Paper company, of Winnipeg, of which there is a branch in this city, has been here for the past two days inspecting the local office.

"Oh, but you have a great future before you here," he stated today. "There is, of course, no doubt that you will soon be the greatest city between Winnipeg and the coast. Our branch here shows a great increase in business over former years and is one of the best and fastest growing we have." The John Martin Paper company has branches in Calgary and other western cities.

It is agent for several paper mills. Mr. Martin stated that a new paper mill was now being established in Manitoba, which will be the only one in the west, except one on the coast. He believes that the time will soon be here when the Edmonton district or the Peace River country will have a big paper mill. It should be a paying proposition because of the fact that freight charges are so heavy and from the east and the country is growing so fast, thus creating a demand for paper, which is being used for so many different purposes more and more in time goes on.

Mr. Henington, manager of the local office, thinks the advisability of increasing the stock carried in Edmonton and also of increasing the staff of employees to take care of the additional business being done.

GOLD IMAGE OF FROG MITCHELL'S TALISMAN

New York, May 8.—As he was leaving the New York Press Club Mayor Mitchell turned to the reporter and held up a small gold image of a frog and said:

"Perhaps there is something in a talisman after all. This is the image of a sacred frog of Costa Rica which was presented to me when I was on my vacation after my election. 'I was told by the lady from whom I received it that it came from a town and was considered a sacred relic which would bring good luck. I wore it at the time of the recent shooting (as you can see it now, attached to my watch chain).'"

THE DIFFERENCE WITH TWO GOVERNMENTS

The Journal wants to know how those who supported the Sifton government in its policy of guarantees upon branch line bonds can consistently oppose the Borden government in giving a $45,000,000 guarantee for the completion of the main line of the C. N. R.

The question is altogether too easy. The Dominion government owns every acre of land, every stick of timber and every ounce of mineral in the public domain of the prairie provinces. The resources which the government owns are made valuable by the construction of railways to make these resources accessible, and properly, the increment added to the resources by the construction of railways is the fund which should have been drawn upon for the construction of all railways, transcontinental and branch.

But this the Dominion government failed to do. And having failed to do so, and the country requiring railways, the necessity for providing the railways devolved upon the province. The provincial government, with no other method open to it, guaranteed the bonds. In extending these guarantees the provincial government undoubtedly realized that it was lending the use of the province's endorsement for the construction of roads which would add untold millions to the value of the timber reserves and the coal areas of the outlying sections of the province and that the Dominion would get the millions. But it was powerless to in any way alter this condition.

The position of the Borden government is entirely different. With the ever-increasing increment in timber and coal lands from which to draw, the Borden government could take over the Canadian Northern project, lock, stock and barrel, without costing the Dominion of Canada a cent. Borden, on the contrary, prefers to hand over to the railway knights the surplus which is piled up very largely from the sale of these resources and permit them to keep the railway as well. As though the cash were not coming in fact enough from the sale of the resources, the Borden government now proceeds, by extending its guarantee, to give a blanket mortgage upon the whole thing for the purpose of being sure that the railway which is being built with public land, money and credit, shall certainly stay in private hands.

The reason Borden does not come out for government ownership of railways, which is the proper solution of the question, is because the situation at Ottawa is that of railway ownership of government, which makes the solution impossible.

AN ADVERTISEMENT WHICH WAS NEARLY LOST

A member of the Barr colony, now three times winner of the Colorado trophy which makes him the world's champion oat grower, tells those who assembled at Lloydminster to honor his feat that there were many times in the early stages of his experience as a settler when he and his sons were sorely tempted to pull up stakes and leave the country.

They do not entertain these feelings now, but until the reward of their industry was tangible they were in the position that many a settler is, the position of feeling "what's the use?" Today the hills of Lloydminster, father and sons, are the best advertisement the country has, but how near Alberta came to not having them! Just a little turn the other way, an opening avenue to escape from the homestead at the psychological moment and the advertisement would have not existed nor would Alberta today be recognized as the greatest oat country in the world.

The "back to the land" movement has every little to commendation, but the getting of settlers onto the land is by no means as important as keeping them on the land. The immigration policy which presents the settler with a bare 160 acres, offers him the benefit of no kindly advice gathered from the experience of others, and furnishes no opportunity through cheap loans or otherwise by which he may stock the farm even meagrely, is only half complete. There are plenty who would be overjoyed of the opportunity to get onto the land, but Gladstone's three acres and a cow was a much wiser gift to the man who had nothing to start with than 160 acres without any cow or anything else, and little knowledge of what to do with the land even if he had.

THE GRAND PRIZE FOR BLACKGUARDISM

The grand prize for blackguardism is surely earned by the Bulletin when it seeks, editorially, to convey the impression that Mayor MacNamara's motive in holding up the paving programme may be based on an intention on his part to shake the paving companies down.

The Bulletin has had Mayor MacNamara's reasons for not going on with the work, and having taken a very lively part in helping to defeat the working men's bill it should be willing to accept its own share of the responsibility for the fact that the work is stopped while the streets are lined with unemployed.

That the risk that the city might involve itself financially is too great to justify the immediate undertaking of the programme is an opinion for which the mayor accepts full personal responsibility. With the subdivision of the duties of the commission board this is the only place where the finance committee can call upon him for a decision. Aside from the financial features, the dealings with the contracting companies are up to the commissioner of public works, who knows his business as an engineer sufficiently well that he is not likely to be hoodwinked by any paying monopoly.

Even though the mayor's hesitation might be proven altogether unwarranted, as most of the members of the council appear to believe it to be, the attempt of the Bulletin to seize upon the same as a peg on which to hang a calumny against the mayor is a character of sneaking libel of which no other newspaper than the Bulletin could be capable.

IS CANADA PREPARED FOR A ROYAL FAMILY OF ITS OWN?

With no attempt to minimize the many endearing qualities with which he is attributed in the dispatches, there will be a grave doubt in the minds of many Canadians as to the wisdom in the appointment of Prince Alexander of Teck to the governor-generalship of Canada.

The doubt will arise out of the fact that the new appointee is a prince, the sister of a queen, and what this may lead to.

The appointment of the Prince of Teck, following that of the Duke of Connaught, brings Canada one step nearer to having a royal family of its own. The consistent subsequent step is the appointment of a son of a king, with which the precedent, in its completeness, would be established.

This brings it to a question of whether or not Canadians are prepared to accept the establishment of a royal family. Aside from very small circles in Montreal, Toronto and Ottawa, it is altogether improbable that any appreciable percentage of Canadians could be found who would be willing to accept the chances of superimposing a royalist strata upon Canadian society.

Before Canada is led too deeply into the maze, some definite stand should be taken by Canadian public men as to just how far this Dominion is prepared to go. Unless the matter is set out clearly now, the present situation may be some day discovered to have contained great danger for the future.

ELECTRIC COOKING OBVIATES SEVERAL HOUSE NOISANCES

City Light Department Making Efforts Show Residents Many Advantages.

"ELECTRIC WEEK" HERE FROM MAY 25 TO 30

This Method Now Beyond Experimental Stage—Big Success Elsewhere.

The city electric light department is at the present time making an effort to show the citizens of Edmonton the advantages to be obtained from electric cooking. It is conducting what may be described as an educational campaign in order that everyone may learn just what the electric method means. Of course, there are many people who have already had a very satisfactory experience with electric household appliances, both in Edmonton and other places, but it is felt that there are yet a large number who do not fully realize the many benefits to be gained.

In connection with this matter the dates May 25 to 30, will be "Electric Week" in Edmonton and during that period special demonstrations and displays will be held in order that everyone may become familiar with electric cooking. It is desired that all should understand and appreciate the quality and convenience also and the actual results, including the fact that a rate of four cents per unit can be obtained when an apartment is installed in residences. Circulars advertising the various makes of electrical appliances used by the electric light company are sent to everyone using electric light, so that in this and other ways, all who have an opportunity to learn the numerous advantages of this system over coal, gas or oil.

Cooking by the electric method has been a very successful feature in European countries, particularly England, for a number of years. On this side of the water its introduction is of more recent date. The development here has, however, been extremely rapid, for whenever it has been introduced electric cooking has met with unqualified success. The efficiency and convenience of electric cooking is so strongly appealed to the practical people of this continent and it has not required much time to convince them that the electric way means one hundred cents worth of value for every dollar spent. There is an old saying that "the proof of the pudding is in the eating" and this particularly applies to electric cooking appliances in the home.

The steady advance of the electric way and the increasing number of people using it are the best testimonials which could be given. Just as electric lights are replacing kerosene lamps and the electric street car is taking the place of the horse-drawn vehicle, so electric household appliances are replacing the older and more laborious methods. While many people have been just trying something which they are not sure of, the electric method is now being used by those who are not only satisfied with it, but are recommending it to others. Once the electric method is given a fair trial there is no tendency to back out of the electric way. The number of people who are using electric cooking is increasing rapidly, and the number of people who are using electric cooking is increasing rapidly, and the number of people who are using electric cooking is increasing rapidly.

The number attending practice is 20, 15 buglers and seven drummers. This is expected to form the nucleus of a larger band when things are in such shape that a larger one can be maintained. It is expected that when the organization is complete two drummers and buglers will be attached to each company.

It is also expected that the militia will contain the names of all the officers on the staff and companies of the three Edmonton cadet battalions. The Edmonton boys are preparing to make a bid for the governor-general's challenge shield, which is presented to the city having the largest proportion of cadets and the holder will be the battalion making the best showing in drill and musketry. The shield is at present held by the cadets of Calgary who are fortunate in having such excellent marksmen. On the other hand the Edmonton cadets stand a good chance of winning the shield as it is a well known fact that they are pretty hard to beat at drill.

ERUPTIONS ON YOUR FACE OR BODY

Dry, moist, scaly, itchy, all forms of eczema, or salt rheum, pimples and other eruptions come from humors, which may be either inherited or acquired through defective digestion and assimilation. To treat these eruptions with drying medicines is dangerous. Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla. It helps the system discharge the humors, and improves the digestion and assimilation. It goes to the roots of diseases. Get it today.

The King George hospital or that cooking range of sufficient capacity to cook for 250 persons. An idea of the size of this installation may be gained from the fact that the boiler section alone is capable of cooking 70 pounds of meat per hour.

Modern buildings in all parts of the country are now being equipped for electric cooking and almost every work of the electrical engineer gives descriptions of large installations. In the "electric world," of April 18, 1914, there is a description of a new association on the seventh floor of the Tregler block and left with him $10 apiece as deposits for their berth, reserving them on the special excursion train which will leave here on the midnight of Saturday, June 18, for the Toronto convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America.

Mr. Milne stated that over 85 had applied for berths up till noon today and although this was an exceptional morning, when five called inside of 30 minutes, the deposits are coming in at the rate of six or seven a day and it looks as if those who wish to take advantage of this special excursion rate will have to make reservation early, particularly if they wish the best locations in the sleepers. The association is receiving invitations from commercial bodies in all the cities at which it is expected to stop off stating that they will be entertained and asking for information as to how many it is expected will go. Among those who have been wired is the Chicago association of Commerce, the largest commercial association in New York.

Toronto is making preparations for the reception of between 8,000 and 10,000 visitors to the convention. At the opening services at the famous Mendelson choir of Toronto has been secured, while the Toronto Ad Club has obtained permission to use the grounds of the Canadian National exhibition, the largest annual exhibition in the world, for the convention. Here will be a special post office, to which delegates can have their mail addressed, a special press headquarters and other features to make everything convenient for everybody. Arrangements are being made with plenty of time for recreations and side trips, even for those who intend to take a prominent part in the deliberations of the convention.

EDMONTON CADETS START BUGLE BAND

Twenty Attend First Practice Under Instruction of Sergeant Creighton.

TO TURN OUT AT REVIEW Determined Effort Will Be Made Capture Governor-General's Shield.

Last Thursday night saw the starting of the Edmonton cadets' bugle band. The first practice was held under the instruction of Sergeant Creighton, 101st Edmonton Fusiliers, who, it is expected, will be the permanent instructor. Mr. Creighton, who has just returned from the Royal school of instruction, Fort Osborne, Winnipeg, is a thoroughly well qualified man both to undertake the work of instructing a bugle band and to keep up the enthusiasm of the boys.

The number attending practice is 20, 15 buglers and seven drummers. This is expected to form the nucleus of a larger band when things are in such shape that a larger one can be maintained. It is expected that when the organization is complete two drummers and buglers will be attached to each company. They indicated an extremely weakened condition of the heart and a disordered state of the nerves. One diary spell may pass off, but eventually they will come frequently, and at the same time more serious.

Those who are wise will start taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills before their case becomes hopeless, for they have no equal for restoring health to its usual strength, and making the nerves firm and steady. Len Kinney, Moore Mountain, N.B., writes: "I was troubled with weak and dizzy spells, and my heart was so weak that I got no sleep. I had those spells every day. I got so I would try one medicine, and then another, but nothing did me any good until I got Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I can safely say they did me more good than anything I ever took, for I feel like a very different woman. My friends often ask me what I have been taking, and I always say 'Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.' I tell all my friends who say their heart troubles them, to take your pills."

Their action was mild and the result all that could be expected. My kidneys resumed their normal action after I had taken upwards of a dozen boxes and I regained my old time vitality. Today I am as well as ever, the best health I ever had, and I unhesitatingly give you this letter and my photo as evidence."

Bloom of Youth Now Easily Attained
You no longer need to "doctor" that sallow, freckled, black-headed, rough, pimply, lumpy or over-dried skin. You remove it, instead—easily, painlessly, inexpensively. By a new scientific process, which anyone can use without assistance, the dead skin near the surface is gently dissolved—and a radiant, youthful, and beautiful complexion comes forth. Go to your druggist, get one of these pure, naturalized washes at night apply enough of this to completely cover the face with warm water. The result after the first use is astonishing. You wonder why this secret wasn't discovered long ago. Let the wrangled folks also take hope. CONSUMERS' LEAGUE MEETING DRAWS A LARGE CROWD

One Hundred and Ten Sign Register as Charter Members.

The Consumers' League meeting yesterday in the Y.M.C.A. brought out a large number of ladies, many of whom could not be accommodated in the small assembly room of the building. Chairs and benches were brought in to get a good many were turned away owing to the crush.

Mrs. A. F. Ewing presided and called upon Mrs. Knight to act as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Hyndman who was unable to be present. Mrs. Gillespie was also present and assisted in the organization work of the afternoon.

After a few brief remarks Mrs. Ewing introduced Commissioner Harrison, whose advice was to organize. He also stated that he would recommend that portion of the three-story market building to cost $25,000, the front to be 6039 in dimensions—the main part 48-116, in course of erection on the market square.

There will be a lecture given in the Bijou theater on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Edmonton Humane Society. It is hoped that every one interested in this subject will make an effort to hear this.

With the opening of the parlors and show room of the "Perfection Dress Form company" at 237 Jasper avenue next to the Lyceum theater, the dressmakers and ladies of Edmonton have been supplied with a long felt want.

Here they will find dress forms of every description, statuary and adjustable with lady in attendance who is not only capable but more than willing to demonstrate and explain all the details of dress forms, some of them so constructed that they are used every part (and there are 28 of them), adjust independently of any other, thus enabling it to be adjusted to fit any figure shape or size.

To Perfume Rooms
The latest way of perfuming a room suggests a compromise between the Colonial pot-pourri and the modern incense burner. This is the method.

Fill an Egyptian jar with sachet powder, violet or sandalwood as a rule, and cover the jar with its two light-fitting caps, so that no particle of fragrance escapes till the covers are removed. Whenever the dainty woman desires to have the atmosphere of her room delicately scented when she enters, she need only remove the jar and replace them only when sufficient scent has permeated it.

MOTHER

Hymn—Tune: "God Save the King."

Mother! That precious name,
For evermore the same,
Earth's sweetest word!
Through ages past have flown,
No sound was ever known
Like that name alone,
Or ever heard!

From childhood's earliest day,
She guarded all our way
With tender care,
She shared our every we,
Each cherished hope did know,
Heard every whisper low,
Of childish prayer.

Through the long hours of night,
When tears bedimmed her sight,
Our pain she soothed;
Never that weary night
Always for us she wrought;
With tireless love she sought
Our paths to smooth.

Wonderous, oh, wonderful love,
Most like that above,
She gave us life,
Nurtured that early life,
Always for us she wrought;
With tireless love she sought
Our paths to smooth.

Oh, what a debt we owe!
Our grateful love we show
While now we may;
More tender yet to be;
Though and ever true,
Her slightest need to see
Each passing day.

Our mother's God, to Thee,
In deep thanksgiving we
We lift our prayer;
Keep those we love the best
Through every day and year,
And may they ever rest
Safe in thy care.

GARDEN PARTIES
OPEN UP FAMOUS
VILLA OF ROME

Rome, May 9.—Summer is here and the day at hand when the renaissance suburban villa of the Roman nobles will require its rustic state to fashionable crowds for the garden parties which are characteristic of the Rome of Leo N. and were once of in verse and prose by the humanists adorning the court of that great Pope.

The Villa of the Knights of Malta, on the eastern slope of Aventine, was the first to admit a large crowd, and even today it has been difficult to get the necessary produce as farmers are loath to leave home in seedling time but evidently we hope for great things.

Mr. Duncan Robertson was the third speaker of the afternoon who in complimenting the ladies on the action being taken by them informed them that a new by-law was necessary, that of the city council. Among other innovations to be introduced in the new market if possible, the use of eggs by the pound instead of by the dozen. In conclusion Mr. Robertson remarked that "now we need the assistance of the women to make our market a success. He incidentally stated that he had never seen a woman at the market since he had been in the city."

Mr. Ewing at the close of Mr. Robertson's remarks stated that a reduction in the high cost of living was what every housewife is anxious to see, and that there is no reason why Edmonton should not have the best market in the province or anywhere in the world for that matter, as we have the best soil, she stated she would like to say: Mrs. Ewing deplored the fact that Edmonton is a year behind Calgary in this work but though by working together the night was made day could be soon overcome by the great progress that would be made once a market was actually opened.

Mrs. Gillespie moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Ewing for the very great interest she had taken and the untiring efforts put forth to make a success of the work in hand.

Mrs. Ewing also suggested that a letter of sympathy be written to Mrs. Buley as coming from the organization, which she was sure would be deeply appreciated by Mrs. Buley. This was carried and the secretary, Mrs. Knight was instructed to write the letter.

Then the work of temporary organization was carried out as follows: Mrs. Buley, honorary president, President, Mrs. A. N. Mount, first vice-president, Mrs. H. C. Wilson, second vice-president, Mrs. A. F. Ewing, third vice-president, Mrs. Rice Sheppard, record secretary, Mrs. H. de la Harpe, Mrs. H. B. Wells; corresponding secretaries, Mrs. Hisslop and Mrs. King; treasurers, Mrs. Calver and Mrs. Deane; six councillors on the executive, Mrs. Margath, Mrs. J. C. Chadwick, Mrs. Morgan, Madame Wilfred Gierney, Mrs. William Diamond, Mrs. Cogswell.

On motion of Mrs. Short, Mrs. Ewing was appointed convener of a committee to draft a constitution. The other members to be Mrs. Broadus, Mrs. Gillespie, Mrs. H. W. Cusley and Mrs. H. C. Wilson.

After singing God Save the King, Mrs. Buley presiding at the piano, the ladies to the number of 110 signed the register as charter members of the organization. Membership fee being fixed at 25 cents.

"City Beautiful" Lecture at Alexander Taylor School.

One of the most instructive and interesting lectures of the series being given on the subject of beautifying the city, planning roads, etc., was delivered last evening in the Alexander Taylor school by Mr. A. W. Foley, B.S.A., of the agricultural department. Mr. Foley illustrated the work in hand by a set of slides showing how walls, unsightly places, back yards and alleys before the process of beautifying began, then showed the same places after vines had been planted and flowers and gardens laid out.

In the course of his remarks he gave in plain, clear language the process of the growth of a seed. How it had a germ of life in it, and then as it burst the seed pod and its roots went out into the ground in search of plant food upon which to thrive and grow, the same as children must be fed to grow, all of which was listened to with much interest by the smallest of his hearers as well as the older ones. He then explained the necessity of keeping down the weeds and not let them take the food and moisture from the garden plants and flowers, and closed with a comprehensive summary of how to conserve the moisture in the ground which the plants need to dissolve the plant food in the earth. The address closed with illustrations of many flowers with which the children were asked to name the white shade on the screen, and this proved that girls are more familiar with flowers than boys, as the green could name off hand nearly all the flowers shown.

All of the hearers were so pleased with the address and lectures that Mr. Foley was asked to repeat it some time next week, which he kindly consented to do. The place and date to be fixed later.

New Luncheon Set
Very practical, and dainty still, are the newest designs in luncheon sets. Of heavy linen or crash in justly of natural shades, the edges of the various pieces are finished with small scalloped Chinese blue. Nylon green, old rose, or Van Dyck brown—the four shades that best accord with the usual dining-room decorations and with almost any of the oriental table potteries. These new sets consist of a center mat of twenty-four inch circumference, a dozen each of plate in matching colors and designs, come long scarfs for the table and serving table, and with almost any of the oriental table potteries. These new sets consist of a center mat of twenty-four inch circumference, a dozen each of plate in matching colors and designs, come long scarfs for the table and serving table, and with almost any of the oriental table potteries.

It is an immense saving of laundry, since when an accident happens one mat another may be substituted and the table napery kept looking fresh for several days in succession.

GARDENS AND MONEY

Addresses will be given in the Technical school Syndicate avenue, on Monday evening, by Mr. H. C. Anderson, formerly manager of The Traders bank, now with Gorman, Chancy and Grindley, on "How to Make and Save Money," and by Mr. Paul von Auerbach, orientalist and lecturer on the beautification of public and private grounds, what to grow and how to go about it.

As everyone knows, the men, who can speak with authority on their topics, which are very timely, it is topped that all interested in any part of the city will accept this invitation to be present.

Miss Louise Moore and Mr. Vincent McDougall will contribute vocal solos and the orchestra of Grace Methodist church will assist in the pleasure of the evening. The chair will be taken at 8 o'clock sharp by Rev. Canon Howcroft.

New violet bath salts come in small cubes of green. They are so strongly scented that half of one cube is enough for a bath.

Presentation By The EDMONTON CAPITAL

Willis J. Abbot, the versatile writer on international subjects and author of many books of history and travel, spent months in Panama and the Canal Zone in the preparation of this volume. He collected at first hands the complete history of the great Canal, with a wealth of historical data concerning Panama which has never before been written. The result is a human interest story of this beautiful land and its people from the early days when Columbus tried to find a natural waterway from the Atlantic to the Pacific, down to the present time.

Special staff photographers made the hundreds of beautiful views which illustrate practically every page of this exhaustive book.

The well-known artist, E. J. Read, made the sixteen sumptuous water-color studies which are reproduced by the latest color processes on specially made paper.

The Panama Canal, the greatest engineering achievement of the world's history, cost more than $400,000,000

It links the two greatest oceans, and becomes the most important factor in peace and war. So where is the red-blooded inhabitant of this globe that does not feel vitally interested in it? Truly it is the wonder of this progressive age!
